

I Called. God Answered

LOGOS Winter Retreat

Jan 4-6, Cedar Lake, IN

What if prayer felt as addictive as checking your phone or as natural as hanging out with friends, yet more powerful than a lifetime career in the White House? That is possible because prayer is a conversation with God.

Do you know what to do when random thoughts or drowsiness sabotage your conversations? Are your prayer meetings paralyzed by awkward gaps of silence? This retreat intends to provide more than technical solutions. Through hands-on learning we hope to equip you with communication skills for improving your relationship with God. By the end of the retreat we hope prayer will feel more like delight than duty, and more like a relationship than a ritual. We are begging God that you will return home eager for spiritual conversations with Him – conversations that are compelling, personal, and powerful.
